

Session and title of the presentation	First Author
	Name	Lastname
Session 1. Families in the context of COVID-19 Pandemy and telework 1
Does Telework affect Interference between Work and Family? Boundary Dissolution in Perceived High-Demand Work for Parents	Ayhan	Adams
Remote work during the COVID-19 pandemic and inequalities between men and women in families with children in longitudinal qualitative research	Piotr	Binder
Working from Home and Parental Well-Being during the COVID-19 Pandemic: Differences by Gender and Partnership Context	Heiko	Rüger
Working from Home and Work–Family Interface: The Importance of Role Salience	Inga	Lass
Session 2. Families in the context of COVID-19 Pandemy and telework 2
The care of children 0 to 6 years during the lockdown: the perspective of Spanish parents	Jesús	Rogero-García
The burden of children during the pandemic according to family configurations	Jacques-Antoine	Gauthier
Families and care strategies among generations in Italy: opportunities and challenges after Covid-19 pandemic	Isabella	Crespi
The impact of COVID-19 on family dynamics and the care of children*	Karabo	Mohapanele
Care, teleworking and work-life balance in pandemic times	Begoña	Elizalde-San Miguel
Session 3. Families in the context of COVID-19 Pandemy and telework 3
Women’s multitasking. The feminisation of unpaid work in Polish households during the COVID-19 pandemic	Katarzyna	Suwada
The Dynamics and the Context of Working Parents’ Emotional Experiences during the COVID-19 Pandemic in Poland – Toward the Concept of Emotional Boundary Labor	Monika	Frąckowiak-Sochańska
Italian families and the post-pandemic challenge: towards new balances between life and work?	Luca	Pesenti
Balancing Work and Care During the COVID-19 Pandemic. Insights from an Austrian Qualitative Longitudinal Study	Vera	Dafert
Session 4. Divorce, post-divorce and widowhood dynamics
Maternal gatekeeping in post-separated families: a dynamic perspective	Benjamin	Moles Kalt
Post-divorce with minor children: work, family and personal reconciliation strategies*	Diego	Becerril
Displaying absence: an analysis of objects through widows' narratives*	Ana Rita	Oliveira Brás
The Scarlet Letter : Understanding the Stigma of Divorce Amongst Singaporean Indian Women*	Sinchita	Valalan-Rajendran
Care work in separated families - lessons learnt from COVID-19?*	Prof.Dr. Nina	Weimann-Sandig
*It needs to confirm attendance through registration

Session 5. Family policies 1
The intimate and relational realm of parents' divisions of parental leave and domestic labour	Katherine	Twamley
"Fatherhood is neglected, ignored, unnoticed. Fatherhood is often demeaned and even fought against"—a discourse analysis of Polish fathers' movements advocating Shared Parenting	Malgorzata	Sikorska
Reluctant fathers? Not taking paternity leave despite supportive policy and cultural context	Alix	Sponton
Shaping gender through policy: Shifting gender paradigms in Spanish parental leave policy	Gerard	de Castro Coll
Provider of care and assistance for people in low-income families exposed to non-take-up situation	Vida	Česnuitýtĕ

Session 6. Family policies 2
Caring for caregivers: the contribution of companies and service providers*	Sara	Mazzucchelli
Exploring British fathers' own wellbeing through their parental leave journeys	Jessica	Hobbs
Exploring diversity of perceptions, uses and impacts of the 2021 Spanish regulations on Work-Life Balance for families with small children.*	Anna	Escobedo
Precariat, gender regimes and use of childcare services across Europe	Irina	Fernández Lozano

Session 7. Ideologies and values in Families 1
Discourse(s) of "Ideal Family" in Post-1980 Perior in Turkey*	Ebrar Begüm	Üstün
The intergenerational transmission of gender ideology: Paternal influences on children's gender attitudes*	Tomás	Cano
Sources of legitimation for gendered attachment parenting in Spain and Turkey	Dafne	Muntanyola-Saura
Dyadic analysis of couples' speech and partnership dynamics with text analysis methods	Julia	Galantai
Women's subjectivity and identity as potential working-mothers: a case study of young feminists in Barcelona	Carme	Vivancos Sánchez

Session 8. Ideologies and values in Families 2
Values in the generations of parents in Spain. Measuring the values of Independence and Hard Work in parents' generations in 2004 and 2014.	Carles	Vañó-Agulló
Adolescents' experiences matters. Narrations on family practices within blended constellations.	Matteo	Zani
Four decades of trends change in European family values: towards a postmodern family?	Mercedes	Camarero
What can we learn from large surveys about people with queer identities? A first exploratory investigation of people who report to be "non-binary" or who report to have a different sex as they should have according to population registers or previous panel waves	Detlev	Lück

Session 9. Migrant families in the Global Context 1
For the children's sake: Polish migrant fathers' living with family in Norway*	Brita	Bungum
Children in Lithuanian transnational families: caring discourses and caring practices through the eyes of children*	Ginte	Martinkene
Intergenerational relations in transitional families in times of crisis: A case study of Turkish families in Poland*	Anzhela	Popyk
Exploring the relationship between family structure and educational attainment among native and immigrant students: evidence from Spain	Manuel	Mejías Leiva

It needs to confirm attendance through registration

Session 10. Migrant families in the Global Context 2

The Division of Labour among Chinese Lesbian Couples: 'Doing' and 'Undoing' Gender in contemporary China	Xuerui	Hu
Harsh choices: Chinese migrant families' childcare strategies in Spain*	Mengyao	Wu
Discursive Kinning in Translocal Families: The Mother's Migration as Told by Grandparents in Eastern China	Zhenwei	Wang
(De)constructing categories: Chinese families, care circulation and non-hegemonic care practices in the transnational social space*	Laura	Lamas Abraira

Session 11. Migrant families in the Global Context 3

The plight of Zimbabwean migrant care workers in the UK: Negotiating paid care work, familial responsibilities and transnational care.*	Obert Tawodzera	Tawodzera
Early Retirement Under Gender and Ethnic Marginalization: Evidence from Arab-Palestinian Women in Israel	Maha	sabbah-Karkabi
To Love is to Share? Money Management Practices among Taiwanese Dual-earner Couples*	Chieh	Hsu
What role does emigration play in changing nuptiality patterns? Exploring polygamous marriages among Senegalese migrants to Europe and stayers at origin	Elisabeth	Kraus

Session 12. Poverty, social class and families

Working poor mothers struggling to fulfil the middle-class ideals of mothering in Finland	Hanna-Mari	Ikonen
Parents in Need: Potential Support between Willingness, Obligation and Childhood Experiences	Bettina	Isengard
Social transfers and child deprivation in single-parent households in Europe	Antonio Luis	Pérez
Feeling poor: single mothers in Finland	Jenny	Säilävaara
Single mothers as home care allowance users: Ideals of motherhood and economic realities*	Anu	Kinnunen
Wasted privileges of the middle class. Analysis of the interaction between social class, gender and care in Spain	Marta	Seiz

Session 13. Ideologies and values in Families 3

Regretting motherhood and fatherhood in Spain	Gerardo	Meil
The present and happy mother: collective legitimization strategies and constructions of social norms	Eva-Maria	Schmidt
Reinterpretation of Masculinity and Fatherhood among Hungarian Stay-at-home Fathers	Éva	Sztáray Kézdy
"As a proper mother should do, I am not employed, and take care of my child all day long." Narratives of parental and gendered caring practices in custody proceedings in Austria since the 1960s	Marlies	Zuccato-Doutlik

Session 14. Life-course and intergenerational and care network studies 1

Family support relationships during the transition to adulthood	Guadalupe	Quintana
Family Caregiving of Older People in Southern Africa*	Elena	Moore
Fountain of Youth? The Role of Personality and Social Networks for the Subjective Experience of Ageing	Ronny	König
When care between generations becomes a risk: young caregivers in Italy	Maria Letizia	Bosoni
Gender patterns in housework among the older adult population in Europe	Pau	Miret

It needs to confirm attendance through registration

Session 15. Life-course and intergenerational and care network studies 2

Longitudinal analysis of the work and family trajectories of mothers in Spain: different work-life balance strategies according to education and country of birth	Teresa	Jurado-Guerrero
Childcare support networks in Spain: not only relatives	Livia	García-Faroldi
Who Benefits from the Village? Doubling Up and Parents' Time Use	Ariane	Ophir
Caring practices in clergywomen's families in Hungary	Török	Emőke

Session 16. Medical and Health Issues in Families

Structural specificities of ART-treated mothers and their children	Anna	Šťastná
Making families with medical help - Who seeks medically assisted reproduction in Germany?	Jasmin	Passet-Wittig
Facing the Illness of a Family Member: an Exploratory Study on the Phenomenon of Young Carers in Spain*	Rita	Cavallotti
Families confronted with unexpected risk: knowledge of relationships as a resource for resilient families*	Donatella	Bramanti
Motherhood at the crossroads: Mothers with physical disabilities*	Elena	Pérez de la Merced

It needs to confirm attendance through registration